

Vocabulary

archaeology

Archaeology is the study of the past through digging up and analysing artefacts.

artefact

Artefacts are objects from the past that have been made by humans.

civilisation

the society, culture, and way of life of a particular area.

ancient

The very distance past no longer in existence

architecture

Designing and constructing buildings

hieroglyphics

Egyptian symbols for writing

Knowledge I already have

In Year 1:

- I learned about significant events such as the Great Fire of London and the ways in which we learn about history through sources.

In Year 2:

- I learned about significant figures from history such as Florence Nightingale and Olaudah Equiano.

Earlier in Year 3:

- I learned about the distant past through archaeology
- I also learned key characteristics of the Stone, Bronze and Iron Age
- I learned about similarities and differences between the Stone, Iron and Bronze Age

Future Knowledge

Later in Year 3:

- I will learn about the Monarchy and build on my knowledge of British History and rule. I will draw comparisons between Egyptian rule.

In Year 4:

- I will extend my understanding of the chronology of British history by connecting the end of the Bronze Age to the Roman invasion of Britain in 43 AD.
- I will extend this chronology further by connecting the departure of the Romans around 410 AD to the gradual settlement of Britain by the Anglo-Saxons.

New Knowledge

This half term,

- I am learning about the importance of the River Nile in Ancient Egypt
- I am learning about how sources left behind in Ancient Egypt can help us understand the past today
- I will also learn about Ancient Egyptian achievements of the Old Kingdom period
- I will also look at society, rulers and hierarchy
- I will begin to construct questions, think critically and develop perspectives

Key Concepts

Cause and consequence:

- I will analyse the causes and consequences of the decline of Ancient Egypt

Similarity and difference:

- I will compare Ancient Egyptian Civilisations. I will also compare Ancient Egyptian Pharaohs

Change and continuity:

- I will explore the the importance of the Nile and trade as well as the impact on trade today

Using Sources

- I will develop an understanding of how archaeology is used to study the distant past.