leadership

When an individual, group or organisation make decisions, influence or direct the decisions of others.

In Year 5 you learnt that the Alexander the Great was a significant leader in Ancient Greece. His leadership helped Oba Ewuare the Great was a significant leader who had a moat and miles of protective walls built around his nation.

A collection of cultural practices, language and belief systems that unite groups of people.

In Year 5 you learn that Viking society had a huge impact on the English language by introducing many words we still use now.

The Edo people of Benin had a hierarchy ruled by Obas. Their society valued oral history and had skilled artists.

Tier 2

To find out.

By looking at information from reliable sources you can discern how the Benin bronzes were made and that the artists were skilled.

By looking at the Edo lost wax sculpture cockerel you can discern that moulds and wax were used to cast bronze sculptures.

A kingdom is a country or region that is ruled by a king or queen. Kings and queens can have absolute power to make all of the rules/laws.

The Edo people no longer wanted to be ruled by their kings, known as the ogisos. So a prince from Ife was invited to take control of the kingdom.

The kingdom grew in size and power under the leadership of Oba Ewuare the Great and other Obas who ruled after he died.

Key Vocabulary

oba

The oba was the ruler of the Edo people who lived in Benin. Oba means king in the west African language Yoruba.

The first oba, or king, in Benin was Eweka. He was the son of Prince Oranmiyan from Ife. Obas were treated as if they were sacred.

The very powerful oba lived in a palace and made decisions about war, trade, taxation and ceremonial events.

A hierarchy is a system of organizing people into different ranks or levels of importance, e.g. in society or in a school.

Oba Ewuare introduced hierarchy succession - meaning that when he died his eldest son would take over as the new oba.

Oba Ewuare introduced hierarchy structures town and palace chiefs to help him rule.

Trade is the activity of buying, selling, or exchanging goods or services between people, firms, or countries.

Oba Ewuare expanded the kingdom. Obas wanted Benin to control of the coast for European trade with the Dutch and Portuguese.

Obas were in charge of trading slaves, ivory and other important goods, so that all the profit went to support his court and government.

Things you learnt in previous topics

The Romans led by using their army to be able to keep control over the empire.

From the Ancient Greek era we looked at sources to discern if Alexander the Great really was great.

Islamic civilisation used cultural exchanges and trade helped to spread the society and religion of Baghdad.

How this connects with future learning

Benin became part of the British Empire in 1897. It is now located within the Federal Republic of Nigeria.

In 1960 Nigeria joined the Commonwealth of nations and has shared goals e.g. freedom and peace.

Benin art is displayed around the world. In 2021 Nigeria asked for the return of 'Nigerian antiquities'.
