Dear Woodberry Down Families,

Re: Parental Involvement

In our ambition to include as many members of our school community in our upcoming project 'Untold Stories', I am writing to you to seek your support.

We are hoping that many of you will have hidden creative talents in areas such as art, baking, cooking, music, dance, drama or video production and will be keen to support.

If you think that you would be able to help and have the time to come into school to work with the children and staff please complete the form available here.

In the meantime, if you have any questions please do contact the school office.

Kind regards,
